

Issels Immuno-Oncology

Second Recurrence of an Advanced Invasive Squamous Cell Carcinoma of the Cervix with Infiltrative Growth into the Bladder

Complete Long Term Remission of the Second Recurrence of an Advanced Invasive Squamous Cell Carcinoma of the Cervix with Infiltrative Growth into the Bladder through the Immunobiological Issels Treatment without further Standard Treatment

Patient Th. B., Born 1907, File 304/56

14 years cancer free without any recurrence, patient leading a normal cancer free life, fully fit for work.

TREATMENT HISTORY First Diagnosis | Standard Treatment | Issels Treatment
First Diagnosis

October 1954

Diagnosis: Carcinoma of the Cervix Stage II.

Histology: Invasive squamous cell carcinoma of the cervix.

Three different pathological institutes.

Treatment: Wertheim's surgery, total extirpation of uterus and ovaries.

Standard / Conventional Treatment

January 1955

First recurrence.

Treatment: Radiation therapy, remission.

August 1956

Second recurrence: with infiltrative growth into the bladder and obstruction of the right ureter diagnosed by Dr. Foerster, Salzburg and Prof. Schoenbauer of the First University Clinic in Vienna, Austria.

No further standard treatment possible. Patient considered incurable.

Issels Immuno-Oncology

Issels Treatment

September to December 1956

Issels Treatment: 12 weeks in-patient treatment at the Issels Hospital with 6 months out-patient follow-up treatment.

November 1956

Control examination by Prof. Ries, Univers.

Clinic Munich: The infiltrate which was situated on the right wall of the bladder in the region of the ureter and in the paravaginal tissue and which the last examination showed as being connected with the infiltrate of the pelvic wall has completely disappeared.

September 1957

Complete remission diagnosed by independent gynecologists and Dr. Foerster, Salzburg.

Follow-up until 1971

14 years cancer free without any recurrence, patient leading a normal cancer free life, fully fit for work.

DISCLAIMER: No claim is made that patients with similar diagnosis and/or treatment(s) will respond to the same extent as the patients shown. All testimonials have been provided voluntarily to share a patient's experience with the Issels Treatment and their state of health at the time. Some patients may have passed away due to age or disease. None of these patients received compensation or are related to the Issels Treatment Centers.