

Issels Immuno-Oncology

Recurring Advanced Solid Squamous Cell Carcinoma of the Cervix

Complete Long Term Remission of a Recurring Advanced Solid Squamous Cell Carcinoma of the Cervix Through the Immunobiological Issels Treatment without further Standard Treatment

Patient A.M. B., Born 1921, File 212/53

16 years cancer free without any further recurrence of the cervix cancer. Patient met H.D., file 227/53 who came to the Issels Hospital for treatment of his incurable metastasized testicle cancer. They both were cured, got married, adopted 2 children and have led a normal happy family life.

TREATMENT HISTORY First Diagnosis | Standard Treatment | Issels Treatment
First Diagnosis

March 1952

Diagnosis: Carcinoma of the Cervix.

Histology: Undifferentiated solid squamous cell carcinoma. Pathological Institute, Hamburg, Dr.Dr. Boehme.

Standard / Conventional Treatment

March to December 1952

Treatment: Wertheim's surgery, total extirpation of uterus and ovaries. Radium Implant and Radiation Therapy.

June 1953

Recurrence. Due to the large spread of the tumor masses the cancer is inoperable and radiation therapy is exhausted.

No standard treatment possible.

Patient considered incurable.

Issels Immuno-Oncology

Issels Treatment

October 1953 to March 1954

Admission diagnosis: Left parametrium filled with a hard tumor which is firmly connected with the pelvic wall. Douglas-tumor adherent to the sacrum. Right parametrium nearly up to the pelvic wall infiltrated.

Issels Treatment: 21 weeks in-patient treatment at the Issels Hospital with 5 months out-patient follow-up treatment. Independ.

March 1954

Independent discharge diagnosis: Complete remission of tumor masses.

September to October 1954

4 weeks in-patient treatment at the Issels Hospital with 4 months follow-up home program as prevention and to consolidate result.

February to March 1955

5 weeks in-patient treatment at the Issels Hospital with 8 months follow-up home program.

Follow-up until 1970

16 years cancer free without any further recurrence of the cervix cancer. Patient met H.D., file 227/53 who came to the Issels Hospital for treatment of his incurable metastasized testicle cancer. They both were cured, got married, adopted 2 children and have led a normal happy family life.

DISCLAIMER: No claim is made that patients with similar diagnosis and/or treatment(s) will respond to the same extent as the patients shown. All testimonials have been provided voluntarily to share a patient's experience with the Issels Treatment and their state of health at the time. Some patients may have passed away due to age or disease. None of these patients received compensation or are related to the Issels Treatment Centers.